
TEXAS GOOSE HUNT

Waterfowl Specialities Inc., started in 1984, offers duck, goose, dove and sandhill crane hunting in the Texas Rice Belt near El Campo, Tx. El Campo is 165 miles southeast of Sun City. They offer guided hunts using local guides. Website: waterfowlspecialities.com 2024 Dates: December 10th Tuesday (drive to El Campo). Hunt Wednesday 12/11 and Thursday 12/12 and return Thursday 12/12. Two nights, 3 days.

Directions: Sun City to El Campo, Tx. We'll set up car pools.

Lodging: A country lodge 7 miles from El Campo that has two large bedrooms, two bathrooms, full kitchen, dining and living room. Minimum is 6 hunters.

Lodging with Meals: $185 per night. Includes 6 meals.

Guided Goose Hunt: $275 per day and you help with decoy placement.

Tips: Bring cash for guides, cook and bird cleaning.

The Hunt: Goose hunts take place in rice, wheat and plowed fields in the mornings only. They use large windsock spreads and hunters are situated in "pop-up" blinds. These blinds are 3 or 4 folding panels about 60 inches tall with window panels to view through. Back is open and hunters sit on stools. To view:

https://store.themeateater.com/products/tanglefree-panel-blind.html?lang=en_US

Target Species: Canada geese, speckle belly's, Snow geese and Ross' geese.

Total Trip Costs: Lodging, meals and hunt $460 per day. Totals: $920.00. A 50% deposit of $460 Bring cash for guides, cook and bird cleaning. No refunds.

Register: Go to the club calendar for December 10th, look for the green box labeled Goose Hunt. You will be contacted by the coordinator after you register with more information and deposit request.

Coordinators: Steve LeClaire/Alex Lopez.