

FIELD TRIP

Bluebonnet Safari

Thursday, April 4, 2-6PM ( 4/11 make up date)

“They are as blue as the deep, deep sea, their smiling faces bring gladness,
For they bloom for you and for me.”—from “Bluebonnets,” The Texas State Song.

When you think of a Safari do “Lions, Tigers and Bears” come to mind? Well, be prepared to hunt for the ultimate Texas prize as we go on a safari to capture the iconic Bluebonnet! We will travel to three known “Hot Spots” for Bluebonnets during the peak of blooming season to hopefully bag the big prize with our cameras.

WHERE: Our quest will take us to Kingsland, Marble Falls and Burnet, which is recognized as the “Bluebonnet Capital of Texas.”

COST: Admission is free.

CAR POOLING: Please let Tony know if you need a ride, can offer a ride, or will just go on your own. We are planning to have a caravan travel to each spot.

PHOTO CHALLENGE: This is a great opportunity to capture the beauty of Bluebonnets as they welcome springtime with their beautiful blooms. Other wildflowers will be in bloom, too, so you’ll get many colorful opportunities.

IMPORTANT: The date chosen is based on past blooming patterns but is not a 100% certainty as weather patterns will play a critical part. If the blooming is not on schedule or if we have bad weather, the trip will be rescheduled.
