

Blame It On Mexico

George Strait

Intro: -x2 C(4) Am(2)

In a bar (C) in Acuña called Ma Crosby's
I found myself not feeling any (Am) pain
(F) I told a 'Frisco girl I'd come for (G) freedom
(F) She said she'd (G) only come to catch a (C) train

We (C) struck up some idle conversation
Traded all the troubles on our (Am) minds
(F) One thing led to another in the (G) evening
(F) And I fell in love (G) again for my last (C) time

Chorus:

(C) Blame it on Mexico if you need a (F) reason
(G) Say too much guitar music, tequila, salt and (C) lime
Blame it on Mexico, but she's the (F) reason
That I fell in love (G) again for my last (C) time

Interlude -x2 C(4) Am(2)

(C) Daylight dawned and found me in Del Rio
In a rundown motel room as dark as (Am) hell
(F) I felt all the pains of a morning (G) after
And all (F) alone as (G) far as I could (C) tell

(C) Why she left I have no way of knowing
Guess she caught her train and that's a (Am) crime
(F) She took everything I ever (G) wanted
And I (F) fell in love (G) again for my last (C) time

Ending repeat 2 x fade on last line

(C) Blame it on Mexico if you need a (F) reason
(G) Say too much guitar music, tequila, salt and (C) lime
Blame it on Mexico, but she's the (F) reason
That I fell in love (G) again for my last (C) time
